Sheldon Ulrich Writes
From France Where He
Is With Marine Corps

May 4, 1918.

Dear Folks:
I am again in a position to write and am dropping you a few lines to let you know I am well. As usual I have nothing to answer, so must just make up a lot of fiction to tell you.

It seems funny mail don't reach me but I suppose my being transferred has held everything back a lot. Anyway I am expecting mail anytime and am going to celebrate the day my first letter arrives.

Today is a great deal in my company for it got paid for February but woe be unto me we already drew that pay a month ago and all I can do is watch the rent spend their money. Anyway, when I do get paid I may have enough to send some home. My insurance comes to $6.40, which makes me draw about $26. That's more than most of the fellows get for they either have Liberty bonds or allotments, but if I don't get my pay, none of them will have anything on me at the end of the war.

Do you notice my stationery. This is some of my Red Cross bag. Everything I got was pretty stiff.

We are having lots of weather here. For the last three days the sun has been pretty kind but as a rule the Willamette valley is a desert besides here. Maybe the reason is that the weather has more to do with us now. You remember I spent lots of time in the states training so don't need such stuff now.

I am sure a lucky guy in having this paper to write on for there's more around me writing on some kind of a wrapper. The only disadvantage is that we have had to provide four fellows with paper since I sat down here. At that I haven't anything to kick about from that source, for when I need something I'll generally be able to borrow it. Turn about is fair play and it tends to make us fellows better pals.

Well, ladies and gentlemen, I haven't slept much lately so will close for this time.

Write quickly and say lots.

Affectionately yours,

FRANK S. ULRICH.

SOME NEW WHEATLESS RECIPES.

These recipes have been tried out in the laboratory of the United States Food administration.

Barley Recipes.

4 cups barley flour.
6 teaspoons baking powder.
1 1/4 cups liquid.
1 teaspoon salt.
3 tablespoons fat.

Sift dry materials together. Work in fat well. Combine liquid and dry materials, handling lightly. Roll or pat 1-2 inch thick and cut as biscuits. Bake in a hot oven.

Flour and Barley Flour Chocolate Cake.

1-2 cup fat.
2-3 cup sugar.
3 eggs.
1 cup syrup.
3-4 cup milk.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 cup rice flour.
2 cups barley flour.
6 teaspoons baking powder.
1 teaspoon cinnamon.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
2 squares chocolate.

Cream the fat, sugar and egg yolks. Add the syrup and mix well. Add alternately the liquid, and the dry ingredients sifted together. Add flavoring and melted chocolate. Fold in well beaten egg white. Bake about one hour in a moderately hot oven.

Corn Flour Sponge Cake.

4 eggs.
1 cup sugar.
2 tablespoons lemon juice.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1 cup corn flour.

Separate the whites and yolks of eggs. Beat the yolks until thick and light lemon color. Beat sugar into the stiffened yolks, then add the lemon juice and salt. Fold in alternately the stiffly beaten whites and flour. Bake in an ungreased pan for 35 to 40 minutes. Start in a moderate oven and when about half done raise the temperature to that of a hot oven.

Not for a long time has paleolithic man lived in Europe and it will be a still longer time before the Kaiser's crime of bombing hospital is forgotten.

OVER THE NORTHWEST

Drainage Project Is Big.
EUGENE, Ore., June 5.—Ralph Schneeloch, who has been interested in the building of a $300,000 irrigation system for the reclamation of 20,000 acres of land in the Ochoco irrigation district, near Prineville, is representing financial interests who are backing a project west and north of Eugene, along the Willamette river, for the irrigation of between 30,000 and 40,000 acres of land, according to an announcement made here Monday.Timbers Crush Foreman.
COLFAX, June 5.—Henry Fitzgerald, well-known resident of St. John, Wash., and a Whitman county road foreman, was instantly killed at St. John Monday evening.Liquor Men Get Rebate.
OLYMPIA, Wash., June 5.—By a ruling of the supreme court today in a suit brought against the state by the Olympia Brewing Company, the legislature next winter will have to appropriate approximately $9500 to liquor dealers put out of business by the prohibition law, which went into effect January 1, 1916.Hatchery to Be Enlarged.
PORTLAND, June 5.—R. E. Clanton, master fish warden, left Portland yesterday to arrange for enlargements and improvements of the Klaskanine fish hatchery. The state fish and game commission plans to spend six or seven thousand dollars enlarging the hatchery and feeding grounds. A large tract of land for the feeding ground has been condemned at Olney and work on the project will start immediately.Parsons on French Front.
PORTLAND, June 5.—Lee Parsons is not in the desertic class. On the contrary, he is very much engaged in fighting the Hun in the gas service of the army in France. Recently local exemption board No. 3 reported that Mr. Parsons was one of those who had not returned his questionnaire and that he must be listed as a deserter. A letter from Mr. Parsons received in Portland, yesterday, says he left the city July 22, 1917, under instructions of the chief of engineers, U. S. army, and that he has been in France with the American expeditionary force since August, 1917, for more than six months of that time in the zone of advance.Age Discrepancy Appears.
LA GRANDE, Ore., June 5.—Claiming he was 21 last month but really 25 as shown by a marriage certificate, H. C. Piny was today allowed to enlist at once and this he has promised to do. He has three children, one a babe of a few months. Authorities contend his family will be better cared for with Piny in the army than out.Fritz Rader Sentenced.
RAKER, June 5.—Fritz Rader, convicted at Canyon City last evening for the killing of E. E. McCue, near Long Creek early this spring, was today sentenced by Judge Bligh to the Penitentiary for a term of 6 to 10 years and fined $1000. His father, rated as the wealthiest man in Grant county, employed the best legal talent available and will spend money unstintingly to save his son from a prison term, notice of appeal to the supreme court being given. Rader killed McCue after a quarrel relative to pasture land owned by the Raders and used by McCue. He pleaded self-defense, claiming he shot only when McCue attacked him.Wife Beater Dodges Lash.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Four women, asked by a police judge here to decide whether a convicted wife-beater should be whipped or imprisoned, today decided against the lash.

GERMANS NOT IN TOUCH WITH SENSE OF HUMOR

Master Failing of Haus Noted by Robert Louis Stevenson in Samon.
(From the London Chronicle.)
The master failing of the Germans was noted by Robert Louis Stevenson in Samon. "Other whites," he wrote, "take part in our brabbles, while temper holds out, with a certain schoolboy entertainment."

"In the Germans alone no trace of humor is to be observed, and their solemnity is accompanied by a touchiness almost beyond belief. Patriotism flies in arms about a hen; and if you comment upon the color of a Dutch umbrella you have cast a stone against the German emperor."

Never say die. Go out and help kill kaiserism.

MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

BANDITS AND SHERIFF EACH WIN DESPERATE BATTLE

Two desperate battle between outlaws and posers in which each side wins one, are staged with thrilling realism in the sixth episode of "Vengeance and the Woman." Greater Vitagraph's wonderful melodrama serial, which will be seen at the Pastime Theatre on today. William Duncan (Henry Blake), and Carol Holloway (Bessie) are prisoners on the side of a cliff and each force is trying to reach the spot first. The outlaws lead the sheriff in a trap and nearly annihilate his outfit, which retreats, picking up reinforcements and returning to the outlaws camp, succeeds in driving them back over the mountain top. Mr. Duncan and Miss Holloway, Vitagraph's great stars of adventure, take the leading roles.

Arcade Today

Today at the Arcade theatre. William Fox will present a new play with Gladys Brockwell as the star. This is called "Her One Mistake." The host of admirers of Miss Brockwell will be glad to hear this and they will be especially so when it is told that the new play is by George Scarborough, one of the most noted of contemporary American playwrights, and that it is believed that he has outdone himself in this latest work.

Miss Brockwell plays two parts in this drama. There is no connection between the two, but they are such that they would logically be taken by one person.

Remember the great success that Miss Brockwell has had in the past in presenting two persons in a single drama, the coming of this new play will be hailed with especial interest.

Does He Deserve It?

LONDON, June 5.—The military cross has been awarded Second Lieut. C. B. Alderson of the royal engineers for personal bravery.

When during a gas discharge, a change in the wind flooded part of the front line with highly concentrated gas, he climbed over the top and rescued three men who had been overcome. He returned and rescued a fourth in the trench and then continued his work, although suffering from gas poisoning.
